Enact. 4/59

(g)

Special increase in allowance.

4. His Highness the Ruler in Council may grant a special increase in the allowance payable to recipients whose straitened circumstances are considered to deserve special consideration. Such increase may be in excess of the rates fixed in section 3 of this Enactment provided that such increase shall not exceed fifty per cent. of the rates so fixed.

Existing allowances.

5. Any allowance already being drawn by any member of the Ruling House, before the coming into force of this Enactment, exceeding the scale laid down in section 3 of this Enactment shall not be altered but if such an allowance is less than the scale laid down it shall be adjusted to accord with the said scale.

Repeal.

6. Upon the coming into force of this Enactment the Ruling House Allowances Enactment No. 7 of 1344 shall be repealed.

Passed by the Council of State on this 11th day of December, 1952.
